The illustrated series on "THE DEVELOP-MENT OF AMERICAN INDUSTRIES SINCE CO-LUMBUS" is continued, with an account of "IBON WORKING WITH MACHINE TOOLS," describing the ponderous rolls and shears for shaping and cutting ron bars and beams. How one of the important fiber plants is grown and prepared are told in "CULTI-VATION OF SISAL IN THE BAHAMAS," with picturesque illustrations; an account of "Dr. KOCH'S METHOD OF TREATING CONSUMPTION" is given by a friend of the discoverer; the nature of the mys-terious "VODU WORSHIP" is told by Maj. A. B. ELLIS. Other articles deal with industrial, zoological, political and seographical subjects. Dr. SAN-UEL L.
